

answers to make unto all questions propounded to them in relation to the subject matter then depending before the House of Delegates."

Judge Kell, Mr. John S. Williams and Dr. Ashton Alexander, being severally examined and cross-examined, delivered their testimony orally, in reference to the case of Judge Hanson, above mentioned.

The President accompanied by the other members of the Senate, then withdrew from the house.

And on motion by Mr Wootton,

The house adjourned until to-morrow nine o'clock.

SATURDAY, February 20th, 1830.

The House met at nine o'clock, pursuant to adjournment. The honorable Mr. Thomas, Speaker, again appeared in the House, and resumed the chair. And the roll being called over, the same members were present as on yesterday.

The clerk having made some progress in the reading of the Journal of Proceedings of yesterday, in compliance with the first rule of the house;

On motion by Mr Jones, the said rule was suspended, and the further reading of said Journal was dispensed with.

The several resolutions and a bill of this house, of the following titles, were sent to the Senate for concurrence, viz:—

Resolutions providing for the printing and distribution of five hundred copies of an abstract of the election laws of this state, for the use of the judges of elections, assented to by this house the day before yesterday;

Also, a resolution, with its preamble, in favor of John Morris, of Baltimore county;

A resolution for commemorating the birth of the illustrious Washington;

And a resolution providing a compensation for the services of the Chaplains of Both branches of the Legislature, respectively; severally assented by this house yesterday;

And the bill entitled, an act, to incorporate the Roman Catholic congregation, worshiping at Christ's Roman Catholic Church, near Westminster, in Frederick county; assented by this house yesterday.
